How Colors Affect You

Tuesdays & Thursdays

Beginning April 9th

11:00am MPR

There's more to colors than just aesthetics. There's an actual science behind how colors work on your eyes and your brain. And the secrets that scientists are uncovering offer astounding revelations on how colors influence the way you think, feel, and behave—often without your conscious awareness.
There will not be a course guidebook for this series.

Movie Descriptions

April 1st—Stan & Ollie (PG, 2018) With their glory days as Hollywood's premier comedy team long behind them, Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy begin a 1953 farewell tour of England and Ireland, reminding audiences -- and themselves -- of the magic of their partnership.

April 8th—The Guernsey Literary & Potato Peel Pie Society (NR, 2018) A London writer bonds with the colorful residents of Guernsey as she learns about the book club they formed during the WWII German occupation.

April 12th—Move Over, Darling (NR, 1963) Five years after his wife, Ellen (Doris Day), disappears at sea in a plane crash, successful lawyer Nick Arden (James Garner) decides it's time to move on: He has Ellen declared legally dead, remarries and sets off on his honeymoon. But there's trouble in paradise when Ellen -- who's in fact very much alive -- turns up to surprise the newlyweds.

April 15th—Welcome to Marwen (PG-13, 2018) This affecting drama chronicles the real-life story of Mark Hogancamp, who loses his memory after a savage assault but works through recovery by building a miniature World War II-era town filled with figurines representing his loved ones.

April 19th—Easter Parade (NR, 1948) Judy Garland and Fred Astaire sing and trip the light fantastic to 17 Irving Berlin tunes in this romantic classic. The simple plot concerns a hooper (Astaire) who teams with an inexperienced chorus girl (Garland) in order to show up his former dance partner, Nadine (Ann Miller). Berlin's tunes, which include "We're a Couple of Swells" and "Happy Easter," sparkle in Astaire and Garland's able hands (and feet). Peter Lawford co-stars.

April 22nd—On The Basis of Sex (PG-13, 2018) Long before Ruth Bader Ginsburg became a Supreme Court justice, she advocated for women's rights. This inspiring biopic focuses on her early career as she teams with her husband to bring a historic gender-discrimination case before the Supreme Court.

April 26th—High Society (NR, 1956) In this Cole Porter reworking of The Philadelphia Story, a jazz musician tries to win back his socialite ex-wife -- who's engaged to a respectable but bland gentleman -- while two gossip-rag reporters gum up the works.

April 29th—A Dog's Way Home (PG, 2019) This touching drama follows a homeless pit bull pup named Bella, who's taken in by young medical student Lucas. When the two are separated because his landlord doesn't allow dogs, Bella sets off on a 400-mile journey to return home to Lucas.
